

DIANI JUNIOR CUP (DJC)

TEAM PARTICIPATION

AGREEMENT

This Participation Agreement ("Agreement") is established in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Kenya.

BETWEEN:

DIANI JUNIOR CUP (DJC)

The tournament organizer

(hereinafter referred to as "the Organizer")

AND

Team Information

1. Team Name: _____
2. Categories: _____
3. Team Manager/Authorized Representative: _____
4. National ID/Passport Number: _____
5. Contact Details:
 - o Telephone Number: _____
 - o Email: _____

(hereinafter referred to as "the Team")

1. RIGHT OF ADMISSION

Participation in the Diani Junior Cup (DJC) is strictly by invitation and approval from the Organizer. DJC retains the absolute, discretionary, and unrestricted right of admission and may, at its sole discretion:

1. Accept or decline any Team application for participation.
2. Approve participation with specific conditions or compliance requirements.
3. Suspend, revoke, or withdraw admission at any stage before or during the tournament.
4. Limit the number of participating teams in any category.
5. Deny participation based on administrative, disciplinary, safeguarding, operational, reputational, or compliance considerations.

1.1 Determining Admission

In determining admission, DJC may consider, but is not limited to:

1. Compliance with DJC age eligibility requirements.
2. History of age cheating or documentation irregularities.
3. Adherence to documentation timelines.
4. Vetting compliance in previous editions.
5. Payment compliance in DJC or other tournaments.
6. Conduct of players, coaches, officials, parents, or supporters.
7. Previous breaches of tournament agreements or regulations.
8. Failure to comply with operational timelines or tournament requirements.
9. Any conduct deemed prejudicial to the integrity, reputation, safety, or smooth operation of the tournament.

1.2 Team Acknowledgements

The Team acknowledges and agrees that:

1. Submission of an application does not guarantee the right to participate.
2. Payment of fees prior to official approval does not assure admission.
3. DJC is not obligated to provide detailed reasons for refusal or withdrawal of admission.
4. The exercise of the right of admission does not give rise to any claim, compensation, damages, refund, or legal action against DJC, except where expressly required by Kenyan law.

The Organizer reserves the right to continuously evaluate Teams before and during the tournament and may review admission status where new information, disciplinary matters, or compliance concerns arise.

2. CONTRACTUAL STATUS

This Agreement constitutes a legally binding contract between the Diani Junior Cup (DJC) and the Team under the laws of the Republic of Kenya. The Agreement shall become effective immediately upon any of the following:

1. Signature by the Team or its authorized representative.
2. Submission of official tournament documentation.
3. Payment of any tournament-related fees or deposits.
4. Participation in any DJC-related activity, process, meeting, vetting, or competition.

2.1 Obligations and Compliance

The Team confirms that the individual executing this Agreement has full authority to bind the Team, its officials, players, and associated persons to all obligations contained herein.

The Team further acknowledges and agrees that:

1. This Agreement creates enforceable legal and operational obligations.
2. All DJC policies, regulations, schedules, codes of conduct, directives, and official communications are part of this Agreement and shall be binding as if fully incorporated herein.

3. Failure to read, understand, or communicate the contents of this Agreement shall not relieve the Team from compliance or liability.
4. Obligations under this Agreement apply to the Team collectively, including its players, coaches, officials, parents, guardians, supporters, and representatives where applicable.
5. No verbal representation, informal communication, or prior discussion shall override or vary the provisions of this Agreement unless confirmed in writing by DJC.
6. The Team acknowledges that DJC may rely on this Agreement in organizing, scheduling, allocating resources, securing venues, arranging accommodation, engaging service providers, and administering the tournament.

Accordingly, any breach of this Agreement by the Team may result in:

1. Disciplinary action.
2. Financial liability.
3. Withdrawal of participation rights.
4. Suspension or exclusion from current or future DJC tournaments.
5. Any additional remedies available under Kenyan law or tournament regulations.

This Agreement shall remain binding throughout the duration of the tournament and, where applicable, continue to apply after termination in relation to surviving obligations including disciplinary matters, financial liabilities, media rights, dispute resolution, and data protection obligations.

3. CONDITIONAL PARTICIPATION

The Team acknowledges and agrees that participation in the Diani Junior Cup (DJC) is conditional and subject to strict compliance with all legal, administrative, operational, safeguarding, financial, disciplinary, and eligibility requirements established by the Organizer.

3.1 Conditions for Participation

Participation shall remain expressly conditional upon:

1. Formal written approval and admission by DJC.
2. Proper execution, acceptance, and compliance with this Agreement and all incorporated tournament regulations.
3. Submission of all required registration documents, player records, identification materials, and supporting information within prescribed timelines.
4. Successful completion of all player eligibility verification, vetting, safeguarding, and compliance procedures conducted by DJC.
5. Full settlement of all financial obligations, registration fees, accommodation payments, penalties, or other charges prescribed by DJC.
6. Compliance with all operational requirements, schedules, accreditation procedures, accommodation requirements, safeguarding directives, and tournament instructions issued by DJC.
7. Maintenance of acceptable disciplinary, safeguarding, conduct, and compliance standards throughout the tournament process.

3.2 Participation Rights

The Team acknowledges that:

1. Submission of an application or registration documents does not guarantee participation.
2. Payment of fees alone does not automatically confer the right to participate.
3. Issuance of provisional fixtures, schedules, invitations, accreditation, or accommodation allocations does not limit DJC's authority to review or revoke participation status if necessary.

DJC reserves the right at any stage before or during the tournament to:

1. Suspend, withdraw, deny, or revoke participation status where participation conditions have not been fulfilled or maintained.
2. Request additional information, clarification, verification documents, or compliance measures from the Team.
3. Impose additional participation conditions where necessary for operational, safeguarding, legal, disciplinary, integrity, or safety purposes.
4. Remove players, officials, or associated persons who do not meet eligibility, safeguarding, conduct, or operational requirements.

Failure by the Team to satisfy or maintain any participation condition may result in:

1. Refusal or withdrawal of admission.
2. Suspension of participation rights.
3. Cancellation of accreditation or accommodation.
4. Removal from fixtures or tournament activities.
5. Disqualification from the tournament.
6. Financial penalties or forfeiture of fees.
7. Suspension or exclusion from future DJC tournaments.

The Team further acknowledges that participation rights remain conditional and subject to continuous compliance throughout the tournament and that DJC retains full authority to enforce compliance measures necessary for the integrity, safety, administration, and successful operation of the tournament.

4. INCORPORATION OF TOURNAMENT REGULATIONS

The Team acknowledges and agrees that all rules, regulations, policies, directives, procedures, schedules, guidelines, circulars, and official communications issued by the Diani Junior Cup (DJC) shall form an integral and binding part of this Agreement as though fully set out herein.

4.1 Regulations Included

Such regulations shall include, but shall not be limited to:

1. Team Admission & Participation Policies.
2. Tournament Rules and Competition Regulations.
3. Fixture schedules and operational timelines.
4. Vetting and player eligibility procedures.
5. Age verification requirements.
6. Codes of conduct and disciplinary regulations.
7. Safeguarding and child protection policies.
8. Accommodation and logistics guidelines.
9. Media, photography, and broadcasting policies.
10. Matchday procedures and technical regulations.
11. Protest, complaint, and dispute resolution procedures.
12. Health, safety, and security directives.
13. Any additional regulations or directives issued by DJC from time to time.

4.2 Team Undertakings

The Team undertakes to:

1. Familiarize itself fully with all applicable regulations prior to participation.
2. Ensure that its players, coaches, officials, parents, guardians, and supporters comply with all applicable regulations and directives.
3. Observe all deadlines, procedures, instructions, and operational requirements communicated by DJC.

The Team further acknowledges that:

1. Official communications issued by DJC through letters, emails, circulars, digital platforms, meetings, or official communication channels shall be deemed binding and enforceable.
2. DJC reserves the right to amend, update, clarify, or introduce additional regulations where necessary for the proper administration, safety, integrity, and smooth operation of the tournament.
3. Such amendments or directives shall take effect upon official communication by DJC unless otherwise stated.
4. Failure by the Team to comply with any incorporated regulation, directive, or official communication shall constitute a breach of this Agreement and may result in disciplinary measures including warnings, fines, forfeiture of matches, suspension, disqualification, withdrawal of privileges, or exclusion from the tournament.

No claim of ignorance, misunderstanding, non-receipt, or failure to communicate tournament regulations internally shall relieve the Team of its obligations or liabilities under this Agreement.

5. PLAYER WELFARE, SAFEGUARDING & CHILD PROTECTION

The Team acknowledges that the welfare, safety, dignity, and protection of all players participating in the Diani Junior Cup (DJC) are of paramount importance and shall take precedence over competitive, commercial, or operational interests.

5.1 Compliance with Laws

The Team shall ensure full compliance with all applicable laws of the Republic of Kenya relating to child welfare, child protection, safeguarding, health, safety, and the protection of minors.

Without limitation, the Team shall:

1. Provide proper supervision, care, and responsible oversight of all players at all times during travel, accommodation, training sessions, matches, ceremonies, and all tournament-related activities.
2. Ensure that no player is subjected to:
 - a. Physical abuse.
 - b. Emotional or psychological abuse.
 - c. Harassment or intimidation.
 - d. Bullying or discrimination.
 - e. Sexual misconduct or exploitation.
 - f. Neglect or unsafe treatment.
 - g. Any conduct harmful to the welfare or dignity of the player.
3. Ensure that coaches, officials, representatives, and associated persons conduct themselves professionally and appropriately in all interactions with players.
4. Take reasonable measures to ensure the health, safety, hydration, nutrition, and medical well-being of players throughout the tournament.
5. Immediately report to DJC any safeguarding concern, welfare issue, injury incident, abuse allegation, misconduct, or situation that may place a player at risk.
6. Comply with all safeguarding directives, welfare procedures, health protocols, emergency procedures, and safety instructions issued by DJC.

5.2 DJC's Rights

The Team further acknowledges and agrees that:

1. DJC reserves the right to intervene in any matter affecting player welfare or safeguarding.
2. DJC may remove, suspend, restrict, or deny access to any individual whose conduct may endanger or negatively affect players or the tournament environment.
3. Any safeguarding concern may be referred to relevant authorities where required by law or where deemed necessary for the protection of children.

The Team shall remain fully responsible for the conduct and actions of its coaches, officials, staff members, volunteers, parents, guardians, supporters, and associated persons regarding player welfare and safeguarding obligations.

Any breach of this clause shall constitute a serious and material breach of this Agreement and may result in:

1. Immediate disciplinary action.
2. Suspension or disqualification of the Team.
3. Removal of individuals from tournament venues or accommodation.
4. Withdrawal of participation rights.
5. Reporting to child protection agencies or law enforcement authorities where applicable.

The obligations contained in this clause shall survive the termination of this Agreement where safeguarding investigations, disciplinary proceedings, or legal obligations remain ongoing.

6. AGE ELIGIBILITY, DOCUMENT AUTHENTICITY & PLAYER VERIFICATION

The Team acknowledges that age compliance, document authenticity, and player eligibility are fundamental to the integrity, fairness, credibility, and lawful administration of the Diani Junior Cup (DJC).

6.1 Team's Responsibilities

The Team expressly warrants, represents, and undertakes that:

1. All players registered for participation strictly satisfy the official age eligibility requirements and cut-off dates prescribed by DJC for the relevant competition category.
2. All player registration documents submitted to DJC, including but not limited to:
 - o Birth certificates
 - o Passports
 - o School records
 - o Player identification documents
 - o Medical or supporting documents
 - o Photographs and registration forms
 - o Parents' contactsare genuine, authentic, accurate, unaltered, lawfully obtained, and belong to the respective player presented for participation.
1. No player shall participate using:
 - o False identity
 - o Altered documentation
 - o Borrowed documentation
 - o Misrepresented age information
 - o Substituted player credentials
 - o Fraudulent or unlawfully obtained records.

The Team shall ensure that all submitted information remains accurate throughout the tournament and shall immediately notify DJC of any discrepancy, correction, or eligibility concern arising before or during the competition.

6.2 DJC's Rights

DJC reserves the unrestricted right to:

1. Conduct player eligibility verification and document authentication at any stage before, during, or after the tournament.
2. Require the production of original documents for inspection and verification.
3. Conduct physical vetting, interviews, or additional review procedures deemed necessary.
4. Reject, suspend, or invalidate any player registration where eligibility concerns arise.
5. Engage relevant institutions, authorities, schools, government agencies, or experts for verification purposes where necessary.

The Team further acknowledges and understands that under the Penal Code of Kenya:

1. Section 345 criminalizes forgery and the making of false documents with intent to deceive or defraud.
2. Section 347 criminalizes knowingly presenting or uttering false documents.
3. Section 349 criminalizes making, altering, or using documents without lawful authority.
4. Section 353 criminalizes providing false information for unlawful gain or advantage.

Accordingly:

1. Submission of falsified, altered, forged, substituted, or misrepresented documentation shall constitute both a material breach of this Agreement and a potential criminal offense under Kenyan law.
2. DJC reserves the right to refer any suspected fraud, forgery, or criminal conduct to relevant law enforcement or government authorities.

Where age cheating, document falsification, or player ineligibility is established or reasonably determined by DJC, the Organizer may impose one or more of the following sanctions:

1. Immediate disqualification of the player or Team.
2. Forfeiture of matches or results.
3. Withdrawal of awards, titles, or recognition.
4. Forfeiture of participation fees.
5. Suspension or exclusion from current and future DJC tournaments.
6. Publication of disciplinary findings where necessary to protect tournament integrity.
7. Referral to relevant authorities for investigation or prosecution.

The Team accepts full responsibility and liability for all players, officials, documentation, and information submitted under its registration and shall not transfer responsibility to players, parents, schools, agents, or third parties.

Failure to comply with this clause shall constitute a serious and material breach of this Agreement.

7. FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS, PAYMENT COMPLIANCE & REFUND POLICY

The Team acknowledges that the successful organization and administration of the Diani Junior Cup (DJC) require substantial financial planning, logistical coordination, venue reservations, accommodation commitments, staffing, officiating arrangements, equipment procurement, media production, and other operational expenditures undertaken in advance by the Organizer.

7.1 Payment Obligations

The Team shall:

1. Pay all registration fees, participation fees, accommodation fees (where applicable), transport fees, penalties, and any other charges prescribed by DJC within the timelines communicated by the Organizer.
2. Strictly comply with all payment schedules, installment deadlines, and financial requirements issued by DJC.
3. Ensure that all payments are made through officially authorized DJC payment channels only.
4. Bear any bank charges, transaction charges, currency conversion costs, or transfer fees associated with payments made to DJC.
5. Clear all outstanding balances prior to participation in any tournament activity unless otherwise approved in writing by DJC.

No Team shall be entitled to participate, receive accreditation, access accommodation, receive fixtures, or access tournament services while having outstanding financial obligations unless expressly authorized by DJC.

7.2 Financial Compliance

The Team acknowledges that financial compliance forms part of the overall admission and participation evaluation process.

DJC reserves the right to consider:

1. Previous payment compliance history.
2. Outstanding balances from current or prior tournaments.
3. Repeated late payments.
4. Failure to honor agreed payment schedules.

when determining eligibility for admission, continued participation, or future invitations.

Failure to comply with financial obligations may result in:

1. Suspension of participation rights.
2. Withdrawal of fixtures or accreditation.
3. Denial of accommodation or tournament services.
4. Disqualification from the tournament.

5. Exclusion from future DJC events.

7.3 Refund Policy

The Team acknowledges and agrees that all payments made to DJC support tournament preparations and operational commitments incurred in advance.

Accordingly:

1. Refund requests shall only be considered for withdrawals formally communicated to DJC on or before 30th September preceding the tournament year.
2. Any approved refund prior to 30th September shall be subject to administrative deductions, processing costs, banking charges, and any expenses already incurred by DJC on behalf of the Team.
3. No refunds shall be issued under any circumstances for withdrawals, cancellations, non-attendance, removals, suspensions, disqualifications, or termination occurring after 30th September.
4. Once fixtures, accommodation bookings, venue reservations, officiating arrangements, logistical planning, or tournament operations have commenced, all payments shall become strictly non-refundable.
5. Failure by the Team to obtain visas, travel authorization, sponsorship, funding, parental approvals, transport, or internal administrative clearance shall not constitute grounds for a refund.
6. Removal, suspension, or disqualification arising from breach of this Agreement or tournament regulations shall not entitle the Team to any refund, compensation, or credit.

7.4 Right of Set-Off & Recovery

DJC reserves the right to:

1. Retain any monies already paid where losses, damages, liabilities, penalties, or operational costs have been incurred due to the Team's conduct or withdrawal.
2. Recover any unpaid balances, damages, or financial liabilities arising from breach of this Agreement.
3. Deny future participation to Teams with unresolved financial obligations.

7.5 Acknowledgment

The Team confirms that it fully understands and accepts the financial obligations and refund limitations contained herein and acknowledges that these provisions are necessary for the proper administration, sustainability, and financial protection of the tournament.

8. DISCIPLINE, CONDUCT & RESPONSIBILITY

The Team acknowledges that discipline, professionalism, respect, sportsmanship, and proper conduct are fundamental principles of the Diani Junior Cup (DJC) and are essential to maintaining the integrity, safety, reputation, and orderly administration of the tournament.

8.1 Team Conduct

The Team shall at all times conduct itself in a responsible, respectful, and professional manner and ensure compliance with all tournament rules, directives, codes of conduct, safeguarding requirements, and official instructions issued by DJC.

The Team accepts full responsibility and accountability for the conduct, behavior, actions, omissions, and compliance of its:

1. Players
2. Coaches and technical staff
3. Team officials and representatives
4. Parents and guardians
5. Supporters and accompanying persons
6. Any person associated with or acting on behalf of the Team.

The Team shall ensure that the above persons:

1. Respect referees, match officials, DJC staff, volunteers, opponents, spectators, accommodation providers, venue operators, and all tournament stakeholders.
2. Refrain from violence, fighting, threats, intimidation, harassment, discrimination, abusive language, incitement, disorderly conduct, or any conduct likely to endanger safety or damage the reputation of the tournament.
3. Comply with all match schedules, operational timelines, venue regulations, accreditation requirements, accommodation rules, and tournament procedures.
4. Refrain from damaging property, vandalism, theft, unauthorized access, or misuse of facilities, equipment, accommodation premises, or tournament property.
5. Conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the values of youth development, fair play, integrity, inclusivity, and respect.
6. Avoid public statements, social media conduct, publications, or actions that may bring DJC, participants, officials, sponsors, partners, or the tournament into disrepute.

8.2 DJC's Authority

The Team further acknowledges and agrees that:

1. The conduct of parents, supporters, and associated persons shall be deemed the responsibility of the Team.
2. Misconduct occurring inside or outside match venues, including accommodation facilities, transport arrangements, ceremonies, meetings, or digital platforms, may be subject to disciplinary action.
3. DJC reserves the right to issue operational directives, safety instructions, crowd control measures, or conduct requirements at any stage of the tournament.

Where misconduct or non-compliance occurs, DJC may impose one or more disciplinary measures including but not limited to:

1. Verbal or written warnings.
2. Removal of individuals from venues or accommodation.

3. Suspension of players, officials, or Teams.
4. Fines or financial penalties.
5. Match forfeiture.
6. Deduction of points or standings sanctions.
7. Disqualification from the tournament.
8. Withdrawal of accreditation or privileges.
9. Suspension or exclusion from future DJC tournaments.
10. Referral to relevant authorities where criminal conduct or safety concerns arise.

The Team shall be liable for any losses, damages, liabilities, costs, or expenses incurred by DJC or third parties arising from misconduct or breach of this clause by persons associated with the Team.

DJC reserves the right to investigate incidents, review reports, examine video or photographic evidence, interview witnesses, and make disciplinary determinations at its sole discretion.

All disciplinary decisions made by DJC shall be final and binding unless otherwise provided under an official appeal or review process established by the Organizer.

Failure to comply with this clause shall constitute a serious breach of this Agreement and may result in immediate disciplinary action, suspension, or termination of participation rights.

9. ACCOMMODATION & BOOKING REQUIREMENTS

The Team acknowledges that accommodation, logistics coordination, player welfare, transportation planning, safety management, and operational efficiency are integral components of the successful organization of the Diani Junior Cup (DJC).

9.1 Official DJC Accommodation Program

To maintain quality standards, participant safety, logistical coordination, and operational control, DJC may identify, recommend, negotiate, arrange, manage, or publish official accommodation facilities and packages for participating Teams.

Any accommodation facility, package, hotel, residence, camp, guest house, hostel, apartment, or lodging option listed, published, advertised, promoted, or communicated through any official DJC platform shall be deemed part of the official DJC accommodation program.

Official DJC platforms shall include but not be limited to:

1. DJC website
2. Official social media platforms
3. Tournament brochures or publications
4. Official communication channels
5. Registration or accommodation portals
6. Circulars, emails, and booking notices issued by DJC

9.2 Mandatory Booking Through DJC

All accommodation listed under the official DJC accommodation program must be booked strictly through DJC.

The Team shall not:

1. Contact accommodation providers directly for booking purposes relating to DJC-listed accommodation.
2. Attempt to bypass DJC to secure lower rates, independent arrangements, commissions, discounts, or separate negotiations with listed facilities.
3. Use third parties, agents, parents, supporters, or associated persons to circumvent the official DJC booking structure.

Any attempt to bypass the official accommodation process shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

9.3 Independent Accommodation

The Team is free to source and arrange independent accommodation outside the official DJC accommodation program, provided that:

1. Such accommodation has not been listed, recommended, or published by DJC.
2. The Team assumes full responsibility for logistics, transportation, supervision, safeguarding, and operational coordination associated with such accommodation.
3. The Team continues to comply with all tournament schedules, reporting timelines, transport requirements, and operational obligations.

DJC shall bear no responsibility or liability for independently sourced accommodation arrangements.

9.4 Payment & Booking Obligations

The Team shall:

1. Pay all accommodation fees within the timelines prescribed by DJC.
2. Confirm bookings only through officially designated DJC procedures and payment channels.
3. Ensure that accommodation allocations, rooming arrangements, and occupancy details provided to DJC are accurate and final within the required timelines.
4. Bear responsibility for all outstanding accommodation balances, damages, losses, penalties, or additional charges arising from the Team's use of accommodation facilities.

Failure to comply with accommodation payment obligations may result in:

1. Cancellation of accommodation reservations.
2. Withdrawal of logistical support.
3. Suspension of participation privileges.
4. Disciplinary action by DJC.

9.5 Conduct Within Accommodation Facilities

The Team shall ensure that all players, coaches, officials, parents, supporters, and associated persons conduct themselves responsibly within accommodation facilities.

The Team shall ensure that associated persons:

1. Respect accommodation rules, operational procedures, curfews, safeguarding protocols, and safety requirements.
2. Refrain from vandalism, theft, violence, abuse, disorderly conduct, excessive noise, unsafe behavior, or damage to property.
3. Respect other guests, staff members, and surrounding communities.
4. Avoid overcrowding, unauthorized room occupancy, unauthorized visitors, or misuse of accommodation facilities.

The Team shall be fully liable for any damages, losses, penalties, compensation claims, or liabilities arising from the conduct of persons associated with the Team.

9.6 DJC Authority & Operational Control

DJC reserves the right to:

1. Allocate, reassign, or adjust accommodation arrangements where necessary for operational, safeguarding, logistical, or safety reasons.
2. Conduct inspections, compliance reviews, or welfare checks within accommodation facilities where reasonably necessary.
3. Remove, relocate, suspend, or deny accommodation access to any individual or Team whose conduct threatens safety, welfare, operational order, or tournament integrity.
4. Coordinate with accommodation providers in enforcing rules, safety measures, and operational requirements.

9.7 Refunds & Cancellations

Accommodation payments shall be subject to the financial and refund provisions of this Agreement.

Where accommodation bookings have been confirmed, reserved, or paid for by DJC, such payments may become partially or fully non-refundable depending on operational commitments, provider terms, and the timing of cancellation.

The Team acknowledges that late withdrawal, cancellation, or reduction in occupancy may result in financial losses to DJC and accommodation providers, for which the Team may remain liable.

9.8 Acknowledgment

The Team acknowledges that the accommodation framework established by DJC is intended to promote:

1. Player welfare and safeguarding.
2. Operational efficiency.

3. Fair coordination among participating Teams.
4. Safety and supervision.
5. Quality control and tournament standards.

The Team further acknowledges and accepts that compliance with this clause is mandatory and forms an essential condition of participation in the tournament.

10. MEDIA, PHOTOGRAPHY & VIDEO CONSENT

The Team acknowledges that media coverage, photography, videography, broadcasting, digital content creation, promotional activities, and archival documentation are essential to the Diani Junior Cup (DJC), including the promotion, development, visibility, commercial sustainability, and historical preservation of the tournament.

10.1 Rights Granted

Accordingly, the Team hereby irrevocably grants DJC, its authorized media personnel, photographers, videographers, broadcasters, production partners, sponsors, commercial partners, licensees, and representatives the full right, authority, and permission to capture, record, produce, reproduce, publish, distribute, broadcast, display, edit, archive, and otherwise use photographs, video recordings, audio recordings, live broadcasts, interviews, digital content, and any other media material involving players, coaches, officials, supporters, or associated persons connected to the Team during the tournament.

10.2 Official Photography & Recording Zones

The Team acknowledges and agrees that:

1. All DJC venues, including but not limited to:
 - o Match venues
 - o Training grounds
 - o Accommodation facilities
 - o Arrival and departure areas
 - o Technical meetings
 - o Award ceremonies
 - o Media zones
 - o Fan engagement areas
 - o Any official DJC event or activity areashall be designated official photography, filming, broadcasting, and recording zones.
1. Attendance, entry into, or participation in any DJC activity or venue shall constitute automatic acknowledgment and consent to photography, video recording, audio recording, live streaming, or other media capture.

10.3 Scope of Media Rights Granted

The rights granted to DJC under this Agreement shall include the unrestricted right to use captured media content for:

1. Tournament promotion and marketing.

2. Social media publication.
3. Broadcast and streaming.
4. Commercial advertising and sponsorship activation.
5. News reporting and media coverage.
6. Educational and documentary purposes.
7. Historical archives and records.
8. Print, digital, television, radio, and online distribution.
9. Future promotional campaigns related to DJC.

Such rights shall apply globally and without limitation as to time, territory, format, platform, or method of distribution.

10.4 No Compensation or Royalty Claims

The Team acknowledges and agrees that:

1. No compensation, royalties, licensing fees, appearance fees, or financial claims shall arise from the capture, publication, broadcast, or use of media content by DJC.
2. All intellectual property rights, ownership rights, production rights, and commercial rights relating to official tournament media content shall remain vested in DJC or its authorized partners unless otherwise agreed in writing.
3. The Team shall not commercially exploit official tournament media content in a manner that conflicts with DJC commercial, sponsorship, broadcasting, or branding rights without prior written approval from DJC.

10.5 Team Responsibility for Internal Consent

The Team confirms and warrants that it has obtained all necessary permissions, consents, authorizations, and approvals from:

1. Players
2. Parents or guardians of minors
3. Coaches and officials
4. Associated persons appearing in media content to enable DJC to exercise the rights granted under this clause.

The Team accepts full responsibility for any dispute, claim, complaint, or liability arising from failure to obtain such consent internally.

10.6 Opt-Out Requests for Specific Players

Notwithstanding the general consent granted herein, the Team may submit a written request identifying specific players who are not to be photographed, filmed, or featured in media content.

Such requests:

1. Must be submitted formally in writing prior to the commencement of the tournament.
2. Must clearly identify the affected player(s) and provide any relevant safeguarding, legal, welfare, or privacy considerations where necessary.

3. Shall only take effect upon written acknowledgment by DJC.

Upon receipt of a valid request, DJC shall take reasonable operational steps to limit intentional photography or recording of the identified player(s).

However, the Team acknowledges and agrees that:

1. DJC cannot guarantee complete exclusion from incidental or background capture during large-scale public sporting events.
2. Incidental appearance in crowd shots, team photos, live broadcasts, or background footage shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement.
3. DJC shall not be held liable for unavoidable or incidental capture occurring despite reasonable efforts to comply.

10.7 Restrictions on Unauthorized Recording & Commercial Use

DJC reserves the exclusive authority over official tournament media production, commercial recording, and broadcasting rights.

Accordingly, the Team, its officials, supporters, parents, media representatives, or associated persons shall not:

1. Conduct unauthorized commercial filming, streaming, or broadcasting of matches or official activities.
2. Interfere with official DJC media operations or accredited media personnel.
3. Use official tournament branding, footage, photographs, or broadcasts for commercial gain without prior written approval.

DJC reserves the right to restrict, suspend, or remove any person engaging in unauthorized media activities.

10.8 DJC Authority & Enforcement

DJC reserves the right to:

1. Regulate all photography, filming, broadcasting, and media access at tournament venues.
2. Accredite official media personnel and determine media access permissions.
3. Remove or restrict unauthorized photographers, videographers, content creators, or media operators.
4. Enforce operational, safeguarding, branding, sponsorship, and broadcasting requirements relating to tournament media activities.

Failure to comply with this clause may result in disciplinary action, removal from venues, withdrawal of accreditation, confiscation of unauthorized media access privileges, suspension, or further sanctions deemed appropriate by DJC.

11. DATA PROTECTION, PRIVACY & INFORMATION MANAGEMENT

The Team acknowledges that the Diani Junior Cup (DJC) collects, processes, stores, manages, and utilizes personal data and tournament-related information for the lawful administration, organization, safeguarding, operational management, communication, compliance, and promotion of the tournament.

11.1 Consent to Collection & Processing of Data

The Team expressly consents to DJC collecting, receiving, recording, storing, organizing, processing, verifying, transmitting, and using personal information relating to:

1. Players
2. Coaches and technical staff
3. Team officials and representatives
4. Parents or guardians where applicable
5. Supporters or associated persons where reasonably necessary for purposes including but not limited to:

1. Tournament registration and accreditation.
2. Player eligibility verification and vetting.
3. Safeguarding and welfare compliance.
4. Fixture administration and operational management.
5. Accommodation and logistics coordination.
6. Communication and notifications.
7. Medical, emergency, or safety management.
8. Disciplinary and dispute resolution procedures.
9. Media, promotional, and archival purposes as permitted under this Agreement.
10. Compliance with legal, regulatory, or safeguarding obligations.

11.2 Types of Information Collected

The Team acknowledges that DJC may collect and process information including but not limited to:

1. Names and identification details.
2. Birth certificates and age verification records.
3. Contact information.
4. Player photographs and media content.
5. Team registration records.
6. Medical or emergency information where necessary.
7. Accreditation and participation details.
8. Financial and payment records.
9. Match, disciplinary, and operational reports.

11.3 Accuracy & Responsibility of Information

The Team shall ensure that:

1. All information submitted to DJC is accurate, complete, lawful, and up to date.

2. Necessary permissions and consents have been obtained prior to submission of personal information belonging to players, minors, parents, guardians, officials, or associated persons.
3. Any changes or corrections to submitted information are communicated promptly to DJC.

The Team accepts full responsibility for the legality and accuracy of information submitted on behalf of associated persons.

11.4 Disclosure & Sharing of Information

DJC may share or disclose relevant information where reasonably necessary for tournament administration, safeguarding, legal compliance, or operational purposes, including sharing with:

1. Match officials and competition administrators.
2. Accommodation providers and logistics partners.
3. Medical personnel or emergency responders.
4. Security personnel or safeguarding officers.
5. Government authorities or law enforcement agencies where required by law.
6. Service providers assisting DJC operationally.
7. Insurance providers where applicable.

Such disclosure shall be limited to information reasonably necessary for the intended purpose.

11.5 Data Security & Protection Measures

DJC shall take reasonable administrative, technical, and operational measures to protect personal information against:

1. Unauthorized access.
2. Unlawful disclosure.
3. Loss or destruction.
4. Misuse or alteration.

The Team acknowledges, however, that no digital, online, or electronic transmission or storage system can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

11.6 Retention & Archival Rights

DJC reserves the right to retain tournament records, registration information, disciplinary records, media archives, and operational documentation for legitimate administrative, legal, historical, safeguarding, compliance, or archival purposes.

Such retention may continue after completion or termination of the tournament where reasonably necessary.

11.7 Rights of DJC

DJC reserves the right to:

1. Verify submitted information and documents.
2. Request additional documentation or clarification where necessary.
3. Restrict, suspend, or deny participation where information is incomplete, inaccurate, misleading, or unlawfully obtained.
4. Maintain records relating to disciplinary matters, safeguarding concerns, operational incidents, or compliance issues for legitimate tournament administration purposes.

11.8 Breach of Data Obligations

Where the Team:

1. Submits false or unauthorized information.
2. Fails to obtain necessary consents.
3. Misuses personal information obtained through the tournament.
4. Violates confidentiality or privacy obligations.

Such conduct may constitute a breach of this Agreement and may result in disciplinary action, suspension, or termination of participation rights, or referral to relevant authorities where applicable.

11.9 Survival of Obligations

The data protection, confidentiality, safeguarding, and record retention obligations contained in this clause shall survive termination or completion of the tournament to the extent required by law, safeguarding responsibilities, dispute resolution processes, or legitimate operational and archival purposes.

12. ASSUMPTION OF RISK, LIABILITY & INDEMNITY

The Team acknowledges and accepts that participation in football tournaments and related sporting activities involves inherent physical, operational, environmental, and logistical risks which may result in injury, illness, damage, loss, disruption, or other unforeseen consequences.

12.1 Assumption of Risk

By participating in the Diani Junior Cup (DJC), the Team voluntarily accepts and assumes all ordinary risks associated with participation in the tournament and related activities.

The Team acknowledges and agrees that risks associated with participation may include, but shall not be limited to:

1. Physical injuries sustained during matches, training sessions, warm-ups, or sporting activities.
2. Accidents occurring during transportation, travel, accommodation, or movement between venues.
3. Illness, dehydration, fatigue, or medical emergencies.
4. Weather-related conditions or environmental hazards.
5. Crowd-related incidents or spectator behavior.
6. Property loss, theft, or damage.

7. Delays, disruptions, postponements, cancellations, or operational changes.
8. Risks ordinarily associated with participation in competitive sporting events and public gatherings.

The Team confirms that participation in the tournament is voluntary and undertaken at its own risk.

12.2 Team Responsibility for Health & Fitness

The Team shall be solely responsible for ensuring that:

1. All players are medically fit and physically capable of participating in football activities.
2. Players receive appropriate supervision, hydration, nutrition, rest, and medical attention where necessary.
3. Necessary medical information, emergency contacts, allergies, or relevant health concerns are disclosed where appropriate for safeguarding or emergency purposes.
4. Appropriate insurance coverage, medical arrangements, or emergency preparations are maintained where deemed necessary by the Team.

DJC shall not be responsible for conducting medical assessments unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing.

12.3 Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted under Kenyan law, DJC, its officials, directors, employees, volunteers, referees, agents, service providers, venue operators, sponsors, partners, and representatives shall not be liable for:

1. Injuries, accidents, illnesses, or medical conditions arising from ordinary participation in tournament activities.
2. Loss, theft, or damage to personal property or equipment.
3. Financial losses, travel disruptions, accommodation issues, or operational inconveniences.
4. Acts or omissions of third parties including transport providers, accommodation facilities, spectators, or service providers.
5. Delays, postponements, cancellations, or interruptions caused by weather, safety concerns, force majeure events, government directives, or circumstances beyond DJC's reasonable control.

Liability shall only arise where gross negligence or willful misconduct by DJC has been proven in accordance with applicable law.

12.4 Indemnity by the Team

The Team agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless DJC, its officials, employees, volunteers, partners, sponsors, venue operators, and representatives from and against any claims, liabilities, damages, losses, costs, expenses, disciplinary actions, or legal proceedings arising from:

1. Breach of this Agreement by the Team or persons associated with the Team.

2. Misconduct, negligence, unlawful conduct, or unsafe behavior by players, officials, parents, supporters, or associated persons.
3. Damage to property, facilities, accommodation, equipment, or tournament infrastructure caused by persons associated with the Team.
4. False documentation, age cheating, unauthorized activities, or regulatory breaches.
5. Claims arising from failure by the Team to obtain necessary permissions, consents, insurance, or approvals relating to participation.

12.5 Emergency Medical Situations

In the event of injury, illness, or medical emergency involving a player or associated person, DJC may take reasonable steps considered necessary under the circumstances, including:

1. Providing or arranging first aid assistance.
2. Contacting emergency medical personnel.
3. Facilitating transportation to medical facilities.
4. Communicating with parents, guardians, or Team officials where reasonably possible.

The Team acknowledges that any costs arising from medical treatment, transportation, hospitalization, medication, or emergency services shall remain the responsibility of the Team, player, parent, or guardian unless otherwise expressly agreed.

12.6 Force Majeure

DJC shall not be liable for failure, delay, interruption, suspension, modification, or cancellation of tournament activities resulting from circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to:

1. Natural disasters.
2. Extreme weather conditions.
3. Public health emergencies or epidemics.
4. Government restrictions or directives.
5. Civil unrest, strikes, or security threats.
6. Utility failures or infrastructure disruptions.
7. Any unforeseen event affecting safety, operations, or tournament administration.

DJC reserves the right to modify schedules, venues, formats, or operational arrangements where necessary under such circumstances.

12.7 Survival of Liability Provisions

The provisions contained in this clause shall survive completion, suspension, termination, or cancellation of the tournament and shall remain enforceable to the extent permitted under applicable law.

13. TERMINATION OF PARTICIPATION

13.1 Termination by the Organizer (DJC)

DJC reserves the right to suspend, revoke, or terminate the Team's participation in the tournament where the Team:

1. Breaches any provision of this Agreement.
2. Fails to comply with payment obligations or timelines.
3. Engages in age cheating or submits false documentation.
4. Engages in misconduct, violence, abuse, or actions that damage the integrity or reputation of the tournament.
5. Fails to comply with vetting, operational, or disciplinary requirements.
6. Violates accommodation, safeguarding, or tournament regulations.

Except in cases involving gross misconduct, fraud, violence, age cheating, or document falsification requiring immediate action, DJC shall issue:

1. A written notice of breach to the Team.
2. A corrective compliance period of not more than forty-eight (48) hours where practically applicable.

Failure to remedy the breach within the stated period shall result in immediate termination of participation without refund or compensation.

Where the breach involves:

1. Age cheating.
2. Forgery or falsification of documents.
3. Violence or threats to safety.
4. Gross misconduct.
5. Criminal conduct.

DJC reserves the right to immediately terminate participation without notice.

13.2 Voluntary Withdrawal or Termination by the Team

A Team intending to withdraw from the tournament after acceptance shall:

1. Submit a formal written notice to DJC.
2. Provide such notice not less than fourteen (14) days before the commencement of the tournament.

Where withdrawal occurs:

1. Before official confirmation and fixture release, DJC may consider partial refunds at its sole discretion.
2. After official confirmation, fixture release, accommodation booking, or logistical arrangements, all payments shall remain non-refundable.

Any withdrawal occurring less than seven (7) days before the tournament commencement may result in:

1. Forfeiture of participation rights.
2. Financial penalties where losses have been incurred by DJC.
3. Restriction or non-admission to future DJC tournaments.

13.3 Effect of Termination

Upon termination:

1. The Team shall immediately lose all participation rights.
2. DJC may revoke accreditation, accommodation access, and venue access.
3. Any pending disciplinary proceedings may continue notwithstanding termination.
4. DJC reserves the right to publish official disciplinary outcomes where necessary for tournament integrity.

Termination shall not affect any rights, liabilities, sanctions, or obligations accrued prior to termination.

13.4 Survival of Clauses

The following provisions shall survive termination of this Agreement:

1. Media and photography consent.
2. Data protection obligations.
3. Liability limitations.
4. Disciplinary findings and sanctions.
5. Financial obligations already incurred.
6. Dispute resolution provisions.

These clauses shall remain binding notwithstanding termination or completion of the tournament.

14. DISPUTE RESOLUTION, JURISDICTION & ENFORCEMENT

The Team acknowledges that the orderly, fair, and efficient resolution of disputes is essential to the integrity, continuity, and proper administration of the Diani Junior Cup (DJC).

14.1 Obligation to Resolve Disputes in Good Faith

Accordingly, all disputes, disagreements, complaints, claims, appeals, or controversies arising out of or relating to this Agreement, tournament participation, operational decisions, disciplinary matters, eligibility determinations, financial obligations, or any tournament-related activity shall be governed exclusively by the provisions of this clause.

The parties shall first endeavor to resolve all disputes amicably, professionally, and in good faith through direct engagement, communication, clarification, and internal tournament procedures before pursuing formal processes.

The Team agrees to refrain from conduct that may unnecessarily disrupt tournament operations, damage the reputation of DJC, or interfere with the orderly administration of the competition while a dispute is being addressed.

14.2 Internal Tournament Processes

Where a dispute relates to:

1. Match operations.
2. Eligibility decisions.
3. Tournament procedures.
4. Scheduling.
5. Accreditation.
6. Discipline or operational directives.

The Team shall first utilize the official internal DJC procedures, including:

1. Match protest procedures.
2. Administrative review processes.
3. Disciplinary hearings where applicable.
4. Official communications with tournament management.

No external proceedings shall be initiated before exhaustion of applicable internal procedures unless required by law.

14.3 Formal Notification of Disputes

Any formal dispute, complaint, or claim by the Team must:

1. Be submitted in writing to DJC.
2. Clearly set out:
 - a. The nature of the dispute.
 - b. Relevant facts and supporting information.
 - c. The specific relief or outcome sought.
3. Be submitted within the timelines prescribed by DJC regulations or, where no timeline is specified, within a reasonable period after the occurrence giving rise to the dispute.

Failure to raise disputes within applicable timelines may result in dismissal or rejection of the complaint.

14.4 Mediation

Where a dispute cannot be resolved internally or amicably, the parties may agree to refer the matter to mediation conducted in Kenya before a mutually agreed mediator.

The parties shall participate in mediation in good faith and attempt to resolve the dispute efficiently, privately, and cost-effectively.

Unless otherwise agreed:

1. Each party shall bear its own costs relating to mediation.
2. Shared mediation costs shall be borne equally by the parties.

14.5 Jurisdiction & Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Kenya.

Subject to any applicable mediation process, the courts of Kenya shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all disputes arising from or connected to this Agreement or the tournament.

The Team expressly submits to the jurisdiction of Kenyan courts and waives any objection relating to jurisdiction or venue.

14.6 DJC Authority Pending Resolution

The Team acknowledges and agrees that:

1. DJC may continue tournament operations, enforce regulations, implement schedules, and issue operational or disciplinary decisions notwithstanding the existence of a dispute.
2. The existence of a dispute shall not entitle the Team to:
 - a. Suspend compliance obligations.
 - b. Disrupt matches or tournament activities.
 - c. Withhold payments.
 - d. Refuse operational directives.
 - e. Interfere with tournament administration.
3. Interim decisions made by DJC for operational, safeguarding, disciplinary, or safety purposes shall remain binding unless overturned through applicable procedures or lawful authority.

14.7 Finality of Certain Tournament Decisions

The Team acknowledges that certain operational and sporting decisions made by DJC, Match Commissioners, referees, disciplinary bodies, or tournament authorities may be final in nature where immediate tournament administration requires timely determination.

Such matters may include:

1. Match scheduling decisions.
2. Venue allocations.
3. Match officiating decisions made under the Laws of the Game.
4. Accreditation controls.
5. Immediate safeguarding or safety measures.
6. Technical and operational rulings necessary for tournament continuity.

14.8 Costs & Liability

Where a dispute arises as a result of misconduct, breach of this Agreement, false documentation, frivolous complaints, bad faith conduct, or non-compliance by the Team, DJC reserves the right to recover reasonable administrative, legal, operational, or disciplinary costs incurred in addressing the matter.

14.9 Survival of Dispute Resolution Provisions

This clause shall survive completion, suspension, termination, withdrawal, or expiration of the tournament and shall remain binding in relation to any unresolved dispute, disciplinary proceeding, financial obligation, or legal claim arising from tournament participation.

15. ENTIRE AGREEMENT, AMENDMENTS & INTERPRETATION

This Agreement constitutes the complete, entire, and exclusive agreement between the Diani Junior Cup (DJC) and the Team in relation to the Team's admission, participation, conduct, obligations, rights, and involvement in the tournament.

15.1 Supersession of Prior Agreements

This Agreement supersedes and replaces all prior or contemporaneous:

1. Discussions.
2. Negotiations.
3. Representations.
4. Understandings.
5. Correspondence.
6. Proposals.
7. Verbal statements.
8. Informal arrangements or communications.

Whether written, oral, electronic, or otherwise relating to the subject matter herein.

15.2 Reliance on Official Written Documents

The Team acknowledges and agrees that:

1. It has not relied upon any statement, promise, assurance, representation, or undertaking not expressly contained in this Agreement or in officially issued DJC regulations or written communications.
2. No verbal statement, informal conversation, social media communication, unofficial message, third-party assurance, or external interpretation shall override, amend, vary, or invalidate any provision of this Agreement unless expressly confirmed in writing by DJC.
3. Any ambiguity or misunderstanding arising from unofficial communication channels shall not create liability against DJC.

15.3 Amendments & Modifications

DJC reserves the right to amend, update, supplement, clarify, or modify this Agreement, tournament regulations, operational procedures, schedules, safeguarding measures, disciplinary frameworks, or administrative requirements where reasonably necessary for:

1. Tournament administration.
2. Operational efficiency.
3. Safety and safeguarding.

4. Compliance with law or regulatory requirements.
5. Protection of tournament integrity.
6. Force majeure or unforeseen circumstances.

Any such amendment or modification shall become binding upon official communication by DJC through recognized communication channels unless otherwise stated.

The Team undertakes to comply with all duly communicated amendments, directives, updates, or operational instructions issued by DJC.

15.4 Interpretation

In the interpretation of this Agreement:

1. Headings and clause titles are included for convenience only and shall not limit or affect interpretation.
2. References to “DJC,” “Organizer,” or “Tournament Organizer” shall include its authorized officials, representatives, staff, committees, agents, volunteers, and designated authorities where applicable.
3. References to the “Team” shall include its players, coaches, officials, parents, guardians, supporters, representatives, and all persons associated with or acting on behalf of the Team.
4. Words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa where context permits.
5. Any reference to law, regulation, or statute shall include amendments, replacements, or successor legislation where applicable.

15.5 Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is found to be unlawful, invalid, unenforceable, or contrary to applicable law by a competent authority or court, such provision shall be severed only to the extent necessary, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain valid, enforceable, and binding.

15.6 Waiver

Failure or delay by DJC in enforcing any provision of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of its rights, powers, remedies, or authority under this Agreement.

Any waiver by DJC shall only be valid if expressly issued in writing and shall apply only to the specific matter for which it was granted.

15.7 Continuing Effect

The Team acknowledges that certain provisions of this Agreement, including but not limited to provisions relating to:

1. Media rights.
2. Data protection.
3. Financial obligations.
4. Liability and indemnity.

5. Discipline and sanctions.
6. Dispute resolution.
7. Safeguarding matters.

May continue to remain binding and enforceable after completion, suspension, withdrawal, or termination of participation where applicable.

16. EXECUTION, ACCEPTANCE & BINDING EFFECT

By signing, executing, submitting, or otherwise participating under this Agreement, the Team confirms that it has read, understood, and voluntarily accepted all terms, conditions, obligations, regulations, and responsibilities contained herein and in all incorporated DJC policies and official communications.

16.1 Team's Confirmation

The Team further confirms and warrants that:

1. The individual signing this Agreement is duly authorized to act on behalf of and legally bind the Team and all persons associated with the Team, including players, coaches, officials, representatives, parents, guardians, supporters, and accompanying persons where applicable.
2. The Team has been given sufficient opportunity to review this Agreement, seek clarification, and obtain independent advice where deemed necessary prior to execution.
3. The Team fully understands the legal, financial, operational, safeguarding, disciplinary, and participation obligations arising under this Agreement.
4. The Team voluntarily accepts all rights, obligations, restrictions, procedures, sanctions, and limitations contained herein without coercion, undue influence, or misrepresentation.
5. The Team agrees to comply fully with:
 - o DJC regulations and directives.
 - o Operational procedures and timelines.
 - o Vetting and safeguarding requirements.
 - o Financial obligations.
 - o Disciplinary decisions.
 - o Official communications issued by DJC.

16.2 Methods of Execution

The Team acknowledges that execution of this Agreement may occur through:

1. Physical signature.
2. Electronic signature.
3. Digital submission or acknowledgment.
4. Online registration acceptance.
5. Payment of fees.
6. Submission of registration documents.

7. Participation in any tournament activity.

Any such action shall constitute valid acceptance and execution of this Agreement.

This Agreement shall become effective and enforceable immediately upon execution by the Team and acceptance by DJC.

The Team further acknowledges and agrees that participation in the tournament shall constitute continuing acceptance of this Agreement throughout the duration of the tournament.

Failure to physically sign this Agreement shall not invalidate its enforceability where the Team has otherwise participated, submitted documentation, made payments, or engaged with tournament processes.

DJC may rely upon this Agreement in organizing, administering, scheduling, and regulating the tournament and all related activities.

The parties hereby agree to execute this Agreement in good faith and to uphold the integrity, objectives, operational standards, and safeguarding principles of the Diani Junior Cup.
